Amanohashidate

One of the Japan's three scenic views, a shoal, sandbar in Miyazu bay in Miyazu city, located in northern Kyoto prefecture. It is the second most popular destination in Kyoto prefecture after Kyoto city. In 2013, 1.78 million tourists visited this famous sandbar. Amanohashidate can be seen clearly at Amanohashidate View land as Hiriyukan; skyward dragon.

Ine

A fishing village with a long and rich history, regarded as one of the most beautiful villages in Japan, famous for Funaya boat houses around the bay.

Amarube viaduct

One of the most famous train bridges in Japan, 300 meters long and 40 meters above ground.
